Science Olympiad Commitment

By joining the Science Olympiad team, I understand that I commit to the following:

1. Preparing for my event(s) and helping the team as necessary since this is a team competition.
2. Participating in fundraising activities and paying $45.00 dues (www.mypaymentsplus.com) in a timely fashion. (No student will be denied the right to participate for financial reasons.) Everyone that pays dues and returns permission slips on time will participate in at least one fall invitational and the Brookwood invitational. Placement on regional, state, and national teams is dependent upon work ethic and performance at earlier competitions.
3. Returning all permission slips by the announced deadline. I understand that failing to return a permission slip by the announced deadline may result in me being left off the roster for a competition or not getting my first choice of events.
4. Attending meetings as required to prepare for competitions and activities.
5. Representing the Brookwood Science Olympiad Program in a way that brings honor to the program. I agree to treat all Science Olympiad personnel with the respect they deserve. Furthermore, I agree to abide by the highest standards of academic honesty both in Science Olympiad and in my academic coursework. Science Olympiad is a team competition. The poor decisions of an individual can have serious implications for the team. In order to protect the reputation and success of the team, students receiving disciplinary consequences for cheating or other serious offenses may be ineligible for Science Olympiad for the remainder of the school year.
